Tempting

by chaoswashere_X

Summary

University student Adam worked from the bottom up as a camboy (well, he's still the bottom ;)), and now makes six figures from horny patrons online, which has supported him through school. There's quite a few that are active on each and every one of his streams, and tonight, now that final exams are over, he decides to do a little something special with the some of the items they have sent him.

Kinktober Day 25: Collaring + Mirror Sex

The new accessory was odd at first, but the tight secureness of it around his neck is more a comfort than an annoyance. It's got no bells, no velvet, not even a bulky clasp that might irritate his skin. It was custom made for Adam, and he knows that his patrons have been eager to see it on him since the moment he unboxed it on a more casual stream. Most times, he ends those streams with a quick wank, just so he doesn't fall too off schedule. His patrons never mind, of course.

He sends a private message to Hannibal, known online as "ChesapeakeRipper" (whatever the hell that means), asking if he plans to tune into the stream tonight. It starts in ten minutes, and since Hannibal was the one who gifted him the collar, Adam wants to make sure he'll be there for the first look.

As he waits for a reply, he double checks that his mic is plugged in, and that his camera is put on the right settings. Tonight, Adam is doing something a little different, so he wants to make sure that it is perfect for his multitude of viewers.

He pulls up his streaming platform and makes some more adjustments before checking his phone, having felt it vibrate just a second before.

'Wouldn't miss it for the world.'

Adam smiles. Hannibal always knows just what to say, and always knows just the right amount of money to donate on each stream. He also knows what items Adam might take an interest in, and he's always right.

He'll be using many of these items here tonight, and he's practically prickling with excitement. And just a little from nerves. He can't tell if he's anxious about the new setup he's trying for the first time, or the new toy he's got set aside. It's got a special feature that he's never had in a toy before… It can ejaculate with the use of a syringe and a tube that connects through to the tip. That one, was a gift from a patron named Nigel. He's known online as "RomanianDevil", and Adam oftentimes blushes at the amount of endearments that Nigel will use in the chat. Sometimes Adam wonders if Nigel knows that he is only a camboy, not his boyfriend.

The minutes tick down slowly to the stream time, and Adam uses them to get himself stretched out. He knows that his viewers would rather see him playing with his toys than stretching himself slowly with his fingers. So, to please them, he always makes sure he's stretched out and plugged before the stream starts.

By the time he wiggles in his large plug, he's erect and leaking just slightly. Small drops well up at his tip, and he wipes them away as he settles into the familiar feeling of being full. This plug is nice. He bought it down at his local sex shop, and it keeps his walls open and ready, but it isn't long enough to allow for any pleasurable stimulation. It's perfect for before streams.

Adam settles into the pillows he laid out on the floor, checking the clock hung on the wall before realizing he's right on time. He stretches to click the "start stream" button, then relaxes back to where he discovered the best view would be for his patrons.

The chat starts their greetings, and Adam mutters back polite welcomes as he adjusts the size of the private VIP chat box. He wants it to be larger than the general chat box so he can clearly read any messages that his few VIP patrons might send in while he's streaming. He's the only one who can see the VIP messages, and he never likes to ignore them.

Adam checks the stream view, taking himself in fully for the first time in the camera's eye. His camera is pointed towards the large closet mirror, his body reflected back as he readjusts his body so when he spreads his legs, both the audience, and himself can see his plugged hole reflected back. He's never done mirror sex before, and feels a little shy looking himself in the eyes as he spreads out like a common whore.

He takes in the beautiful light blue silk babydoll style lingerie top Le Chiffre, known online as 'MrNumber', had sent in earlier in the week. It's a compliment on his pale winter skin, and he knows that his viewers will go wild over the silky, flowy garment that just covers his thin chest and stomach.

He plays with the silk of the garment while he waits for everyone to join and get settled in, he's also waiting for one of his many VIPs to announce their presence.

'You look stunning tonight, schatz.'

It's a message from Duncan, and Adam recognizes the pet-name from many of the conversations that they've had, and Duncan has explained that the translation means 'darling', and that he would stop calling him 'schatz' if he'd like. Adam hurriedly had to explain that he very much would like him to continue, not stop.

'I have to say I agree with Duncan. Your new collar suits you just as I hoped.'

This one is from Hannibal, and Adam speaks his reply as he fidgets with his lingerie, "The collar feels nice. I hope everyone likes it tonight."

Adam notices a roar of replies in the main chat, but he doesn't squint to read them. He only reads the new message that comes into the VIP chat.

'They'd be fools not too, gorgeous. Can't wait to see you use the toy I sent in, is that on the agenda tonight?"

This one is from Nigel, and Adam reaches just out of frame to grab the extra large dildo. When he speaks to the stream, he makes sure to be careful not to use any real names of his most special patrons. "One of my VIPs sent in this toy, so everyone make sure to thank the 'RomanianDevil' for the special treat. Everything I will use on stream tonight were sent in by my VIPs. This particular toy is not something I would choose myself because it's messy, but I think it might be fun to try at least once."

Adam holds up the syringe that's connected to the toy, explaining as he shows it to the camera, "This is filled with fake semen, heated by a double boiler to the perfect tempature of 93.2 degrees fahrenheit." He lays the dildo against his stomach to give his stream a good idea of how deep the toy will go. The tempting sight doesn't go unnoticed by his VIPs. The toy is definitely large.

Adam leaves the toy to rest on his abdomen, and brings into view a seemingly typical cock ring, but with just a click of a small button, it's revealed that this toy has a vibrating element. "This new toy was a gift from 'BlackKaiser', and I must admit that I'm very excited about trying it out."

He reaches just off screen for his preferred bottle of lube, coating just the inside of the flexible ring with the substance. Adam takes a deep breath and grips himself in one hand, the other one dedicated to sliding on the ring. It's tight, but fuck, it feels good. He doesn't dare turn on the vibrations yet. For now, it'll just be used as a normal cock ring. Maybe later—depending on how donations are tonight—he could get his viewers to reach for a goal to have him turn the ring on.

'How does it fit?'

The chat from Duncan comes just a few moments after the ring is settled at the base of his cock. Adam traces his fingers down to feel the underside of his cock, testing the ring down near his ballsack. "It's a perfect fit, well, it might be a little too tight."

He lifts the dildo off of his stomach and while the lube is still nearby, he coats it in the slick substance. It takes both hands to wrap around the large toy. This will stretch him, fill him so nicely.

He looks in the mirror when he removes his plug. He doesn't look into his own eyes, and instead stares at his erect nipples peeking out prettily through the thin fabric of the lingerie.

Adam glances over towards his computer, his face flushing when he realizes his general audience is demanding that Adam give them a donation goal to give towards. Adam pauses, thinking a moment before he speaks.

"If it's agreeable, I think our donation goal should go towards something I never do." Adam leaves them to wonder for just a second before he continues, "$2,500, half of $5,000, and I'll turn on the vibrating feature of this cock ring. The full $5,000, and I'll plug myself back up after this toy comes inside me."

Adam would never do this, because he can already imagine the sensory hell, but he'll do it for the money. If his viewers want to see it, they'll donate. The vibration at $2,500 is more intensive than anything. He would turn on the ring without the money, because he knows that's why Duncan had chosen this one for him specifically.

'What tempting goals you've set tonight, Adam.'

This message is from Jean, who is among one of his best donors. Adam always appreciates when Jean likes his goals, because that means that he'll most likely reach it.

As his moderator sets up his goal donation tracker, Adam continues on his quest to get the massive dildo inside himself. He reaches over for it, and aligns it with his hole. He watches in awe as the tip slides in, the view perfectly reflected at him in the large mirror.

‘The mirror is a lovely touch, gorgeous. Do you get flustered watching yourself like this?’

The message from Nigel comes just as he’s taking another break, letting his hole adjust to the intrusion.

“I do get flustered, if that’s not obvious.” Adam admits in his charming monotone voice. “The babydoll lingerie makes it hard to look away from my body and focus on my hole.”

Adam continues pushing the toy in, his forearm straining against the resistance that he finds. He groans as he feels his walls stretch to accommodate the intrusion.

He can feel his cock straining against his stomach, along with the ring fit snugly at the base. Adam lets out a long sigh of relief when the base of the large dildo finally meets his ass, unable to push any farther. This is definitely among one of his largest toys, and he can feel his nerves buzzing in anticipation for when he can finally feel the toy fill him with artificial semen.

He starts slow when he starts fucking himself with the toy, and he can’t look in the mirror without flushing further down his neck, all the way down to his chest. His ass is so wide open, and the image of himself reflected is so whorish and lude. But he doesn’t feel ashamed. He almost feels… confident?

His unoccupied hand travels up to play with the flowy material of the comfortable lingerie, and he puffs out his chest just slightly. He feels beautiful, and he feels powerful looking in the mirror.

Adam fucks himself at a faster pace now, his breathing picking up as he explores his interior. He’s looking for that magic button that he so loves. He’s so occupied, that it takes nearly a three second reaction time to react to the notification that tells him that they’ve reached their first goal.

He groans, realizing that this means he has to turn on the vibrations of the new cock ring. He hopes he can last. Telling by how many times he’s come because of his magic wand teasing his cock… he’s not gonna last.

Adam traces his hand down to where his cock is laying against his silk covered stomach, and with the press of one button, the vibration springs to life. Adam keens, arching his back against the new sensation.

“Thank you for your donations. The vibration is very pleasant.” Adam breathes out, his hips squirming as he continues to work his hole.

It’s not even a minute later and he’s got three new messages in his VIP chat. Thank god they’re short enough for Adam to read without stopping. And he can tell whose sent each of them without needing to concentrate.

‘Fucking beautiful. Keep going, darling.’ This one has to be Nigel.

‘I’ll send the rest of the donation whenever you’re ready, just say the word.’ Jean, probably. Jean likes to send big donations when Adam tells him to. It makes Adam feel powerful.

‘You look exquisite. Don’t forget your breath, the vibration has the potential to overstimulate you.’ Hannibal. Adam learned recently that Hannibal’s a doctor, and ever since, Hannibal hasn’t been shy to give his medical advice. Adam definitely doesn’t hate it… it makes him feel cared for.

Adam takes a deep breath, and moves his hand away from his cock. It’s too tempting to stroke the aching member if his hand lingers. Instead, he plays with the collar at his neck, fingers tracing over the area where the material meets his neck.

He whines when the tip of the toy finally finds his prostate. He wasn’t at the right angle before, but now he’s hitting it head on with every thrust. He mouth parts as he pants, his pace picking up yet again now that he’s found his target.

His toes curl and he can annoyingly feel how the cock ring is hindering his ability to release. The vibrations are becoming overwhelming just as Hannibal had warned, and Adam tries not to focus much on them as he works the toy within him.

His head tips back right after he’s glanced over at the stream goal. They’re at nearly four thousand, and he’s scared that he won’t last to see the goal met. He’s trying desperately, but his cock is nearly beat red curving against his silk garment.

He’s leaking like crazy, and he watches the steady stream in the mirror when he finally pulls his head up to sit right again. He’s really close, so he uses his last conscious efforts to take hold of the syringe full of fake come. It’s not nearly as warm anymore, but it’s still a pleasant temperature.

He groans, speaking just loud enough for his mic to pick up. “Number, finish us off.”

It’s not even five seconds later, and the donation bell rings. The goal was met, the 5,000 dollars that Jean donated plowing through the goal. Adam’s now made $7,500 in one stream.

When Adam hears the notification, he plunges the syringe to make the toy ejaculate. Adam cries out when he feels the release within him. Just a few more thrusts against his prostate, and he’s shooting his own release despite the cock ring. His toes curl, and he forces himself to open his eyes so he can watch himself orgasm in the mirror. His semen covers his pretty garment, and he knows his viewers are all glued to their screens watching him. There’s much less semen then there would normally be, most likely the fault of the cock ring that’s now overstimulating him.

He doesn’t even hesitate to drop the syringe and rededicate the hand to sliding the cock ring off of his sensitive dick. He turns the vibration off the moment after it’s off of him.

Adam reaches over for his plug, and stares right into the camera when he removes the toy. A stream of fake semen flows out of his gaping hole, but Adam is quick in collecting the escaped substance, and plugging it in. He whines when the plug settles into place.

“This feels strange.” He explains, wiggling his hips to try and get used to it. He sits up and strips off his spoiled garment, the majority of the little release he’d ejaculated ending up on it. He really hopes it won’t stain.

But it’s alright if it does, cause his VIPs will most certainly buy him another.

He throws his lingerie into the laundry bin just a few feet away, then sits cross legged as he addresses his audience.

“Thank you everyone for coming. I hope you enjoyed it as much as I did.” Adam assures with a small smile, his monotone voice not distracting from how sincere his words are.

He sticks around for maybe half a minute for everyone to say their farewells before ending the stream with a warm, “Goodbye.”

Once in the shower, he removes the plug. And just as he’d expected, the fake semen drains out of his ass prettily down his thighs. Since he’s predicted this, he made sure to have his camera set up. He takes a short video of the mesmerizing sight of his ass draining. His pale skin looks wonderful wet, and he’s sure that his patrons will love the special video.

He finishes cleaning himself, making sure all the semen is out of his ass before stepping out of the shower. He dries off with his plush towel and slips into his favorite nighttime clothes. He collects the footage from his camera, and sends it over to each of his VIPs separately.

And they all love it.

They’ll be sure to spoil Adam with gifts to thank him for the wonderful content.
